New Zublirations.

sunshine and the romance, another will concen-trate most of his energy on the contemplation of garlic and an impaired digestion. Mr. H. C. Chatfield Taylor is fortunate in that in "The Land of the Castanet" (H. S. Stone & Co.) he is able to recall many pleasant memories of the two former characteristics, while the cookery does not seem to have troubled him very much. He writes pleasantly and impartially, and very fairly sums up the Spanish character. man nature is much the same the world ver, and the Spaniard is very much like other men save that he is down on his luck." Though centuries of misgovernment have brought Spain to her present humiliating posi-tion, the people still retain many of the characteristics that once made them great, and, in spite of defeat and disaster abroad, and national bankruptcy at home, they get a good deal of happiness out of life, in their own country and in their own way. Mr. Taylor's book is well illustrated, and is more readable than the rem-iniscences of the average globe-trotter.

There is enough of adventure in "The Young Pearl Divers," by Lieut. H. P. Whitmarsh (Jo seph Knight), to satisfy the meet exacting of boy readers. Two Australian youngsters, leaving their father's sheep station in western Australia, set out on horseback to traverse the great desert in search of new grazing country. On the first day out they are joined by a faithful black boy and the adventures begin. After some days' travel and several skirmishes with the aborigines they are cap-tured by a savage tribe and brought before the chief, who proves to be, as the author puts it, "nothing more nor less than a sunburnt Irishman." This gen-tleman, an escaped convict, who rejoices in the name of Triantywontagong and has the finest kind of low-comedy brogue, gives the boys a canoe in which they make their way, by river, to the sea and, later, to a tropical island. Here somebody has considerately left a fullrigged lugger, with a complete set of diving gear and a sick Malay. They hoist sail and go to the pearling grounds, find a $50,000 pearl and a long-lost uncle, and flually reach home, just in time to buy their father's station at auction, and so save the old man from ruin. And if it isn't all true, or even possible, more's the pity! It ought to be.

Mr. Gilbert Parker continues the adventures of Pretty Pierre and his comrades in a volume of short stories of the great Northwest en-titled "A Romany of the Snows" (Stone & Kimball). Many of the stories are interesting, and bring to the reader something of the atmosphere of the pine forest and the mountain side, but almost all are marred by an irritating insincerity. The sentiment does not always ring true, and, in working up a climax, the trick of the author's method is sometimes so apparent that the reader sees that his people are but puppets, and the grand snow-clad mountains in the background but painted canvas after all.

We have seldom met with a more unpleasant story, told in a more unpleasant manner, than is 'James; or Virtue Rewarded " (Stone & Kimball). The author, under the shelter of anonym ity, attempts to describe life in a tenth-rate English provincial town, and it would be diffi-cult to rake together a set of more utterly uninteresting and uninviting people than he has collected.

"Totem Tales" is the title of a number of In-dian tales and legends by Mr. W. S. Phillips (Star Publishing Company). The author has imitated the peculiarities of the Indians' style of narrative, and the collection is evidently the result of much long and careful investigation by one who has spent a good deal of time amon these strangely interesting people. The book is prepared primarily for children, but there is much in it to interest any one who cares for the

The latest military treatise of Lieut.-Gen. vor der Goltz, "The Conduct of War," translated by Lieut. J. T. Dickman, Third U. S. Cavalry (Hudson-Kimberly Co.), differs in plan from some of its well-known predecessors. Instead f being a critical description of campaigns it is a compendium of principles. Yet it is rich in examples drawn from history, which relieves it from dryness and make its maxims more im pressive. The book includes both strategy and tactics, offensive and defensive, and brings its subject into remarkably brief compass. Its felicitous method makes it clear and interesting to all readers, and Lieut. Dickman, who is assistant instructor in the art of war at the Fort Leavenworth Sc ool, has achieved a decided and gratifying success in his also of catching the author's spirit and style, so as to furnish a true

"Suggestions for Kindergarten Work," by Marion Strickland. (C. W. Bardsen.) "A Primer of the Calculus," by E. Sherman Gould. (Van Nostrand Co.)

"Children's Stories in American Literature," Henrietta Christina Wright. (Scribners.) Mercy Warren," by Alice Brown. (Scrib-

"Jesus Christ Before His Ministry." by Edmond Stapfer. (Scribners.) "Friendly Talks About Marriage," by G. W.

Shinn. (Joseph Knight.) 'Rise and Growth of the English Nation.' W. H. S. Aubrey, LL. D. Three volumes. (Ap-"The Poetical Works of Robert Browning."

Two volumes, with portraits. (Macmillan.) "Celebrated Crimes." Translated from Alex. Dumas. (Joseph Knight & Co.) "Brief History of the Nations." Geo. Park Fisher, D. D., LL. D. (American Book Company.)

"Bacon vs. Shakespeare." Seventh edition. Edwin Reed. (Joseph Knight.) "The Story of the Mine." Charles Howard Shinn, (Appleton.)

"The Golden Dog." William Kirby, F. R. S. C Joseph Knight.) "Three Children of Galilee." John Gordon. (Joseph Knight.)

"Her Mach Letters," by ?. (Dilliogham.) "Eighteenth Century Vignettes," third series. Austin Dobson. (Dodd, Mead & Co.) "The Mantelpiece Minstrels." John Kendrick Bangs. (R. H. Russell & Sou.) 'The Colonial Parson of New England," Frank Samuel Child. (Baker & Taylor Co.) "An Outland Journey." Walter Leon Saw-yer, (Copeland & Day.) "My Brother." Vincent Brown. (Rand, Mo-

"Our Unseen Companions," by Sancho Quixote. (Wm. Arthur.) "Lost Countess Falka." Richard Henry Savage. (Rand, McNaily & Co.) "The Columbian Prize Charades." Herbert Ingalls. (Lee & Shepard.)

"Sermons and Discourses." Rev. John Mc-Quirk, D. D., LL. D. Vol. I. (Fr. Pustet & Co.) Ring o' Rushes." Shan F. Bullock. (Stone & Kimball.) "Love Stronger Than Death." Josephine Marić. (Cathedral Library Association.)

Sic Vita Est." Sue Froman Matthews. (Dillingham.)

"Some Say," "Isla Heron." Laura E. Richards. (Estes & Lauriat.)
"Under the Liberty Tree," "Teddy and Carrots." James Otts. (Estes & Lauriat.)
"The King's Pardon." Robert Overton. (Estes & Lauriat.)

& Lauriat.) "Midshipman Farragut." James Barnes. (Ap-

"Midshipman Farragut." James Barnes. (Appleton.)
"Through Love to Light." a collection of songs of good courage, made by John White Chadwiov and Annie Hathaway Chadwick. (Joseph Knight.)
"The Victorian Canon—An Astro-Chronologico-Historical Digest of the Times of the Genties." Charles A. L. Totten. (Our Race Publishing Company.)
"Leaves from Juliana Horatia Ewing's 'Canada Home." gathered by Elizabeth S. Tucker. (Roberts Bros.)
"The Golliwoggs Bicycle Club." Florence K. Upton. (Longmans, Green & Co.)
"Letters of a Country Vicar." translated from Yves le Querdec by Mara Gordon-Holmes. (Bodd, Mead & Co.)
"When the Century Was Young." M. M. Blake. (Estes & Lauriat.)
"The Wampum Beit." Hezekiah Butterworth. (Appleton.)
"Christine's Career. a Story for Girls." Pauline King. (Appleton.)
"The Windfall." William D. Stoddard. (Appleton.)
"Winning the Victoria Cross." L. Thompson.

pleton.) "Winning the Victoria Cross." L. Thompson. Estes & Lauriat.)
"Cricket at the Seashore." Elizabeth Westyn Fimlow. (Estes & Lauriat.) New Publications.

Mem Bublientions.

THE YOUTH'S

The list of those who will contribute to THE YOUTH'S COMPANION during the coming year is, as usual, long and brilliant. It includes not only popular writers of fiction, but also some of the most eminent naval officers, travellers and explorers, men of science

Life and Work at Washington.

When Mr. Gladstone was Prime Minister he contributed to THE COMPANION, as did Mr. Blaine when Secretary of State. All the members of the present American Cabinet but three have written for its columns. During the coming year the following features of national work will be described by members of the national government:

EARLY DAYS OF THE POST-OFFICE, HON. WM. L. WILSON, Postmaster-Gen'L BUILDING A WAR-SHIP, HON. HILARY A. HERBERT, Secretary Navy. WHAT THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL DOES, HON. JUDSON HARMON. THE LIFE OF A SENATOR, HON. HENRY CABOT LODGE. THE LIFE OF A CONGRESSMAN, HON. THOMAS B. REED.

For Ambitious Boys. THE HABIT OF THRIFT, BECOMING A DOCTOR,

THE LARGEST SALARIES,

For Ambitious Girls.

Andrew Carnegie.

Dr. Austin Flint.

Dr. Austin Flint.

MSFI.F.

TRAINING THE VOICE, Madame Lillian Nordica.

A GIRL WHO BECAME FAMOUS,

Mrs. Burton Harrison. HOW LINCOLN EDUCATED HIMSELF,

Jesse W. Weik.

FORESTRY AS A PROFESSION, Gifford Pinchot.

Mrs. Burton Harrison.

Dr. W. L. Love.

MARRIAGE SETTLEMENTS, Elizabeth Bisland. Carroll D. Wright. FLOWER-GROWING FOR PROFIT, Rene Bache.

Popular Writers for 1897.

In addition to twenty-five staff writers, THE COMPANION Contributors include not only the most popular writers of fiction, but some of the most eminent Statesmen, Scientists, Travellers and Musicians

Ian Maclaren. Rudyard Kipling. Hall Caine. Stephen Crane. Frank R. Stockton. Charles Dudley Warner.

Geo. W. Smalley. Harold Frederic. Hamlin Garland. Max O'Rell. W. Clark Russell. Lieut. R. E. Peary, U.S. N. Dr. Austin Flint.

Col. George E. Waring, Jr. Hon. Cari Schurz. Dr. W. A. Hammond Dr. Cyrus Edson. And more than one hundred other eminent men and women

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt.

The Marquis of Lorne. Lagy leune. Lady Harcourt. Miss Alice Longfellow. Edward Everett Hale. Rev. Lyman Abbott, D. D.

One of the most beautiful CALENDARS issued this year will be given to each New Subscriber to The Companion. It is made up of Four Charming Pictures in color, beautifully executed. Its size is 10 by 24 inches. The subjects are delightfully attractive. This Calendar is published exclusively by The Youth's Companion and could not be seld in Art Stores for less than $1.00.

700 Large Pages in Each Volume - 52 Weeks for $1.75 - Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

12-Color Calendar

Brecial Offers.

Hew Subscribers who will cut out this slip and send it at once with name and address and $1.75 will receive:

Free—The Youth's Companion every week from the time subscription is received till January 1, 1897;

Free—Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Double Numbers;

Free—The Companion's 4-page Calendar for 1897, A beautifully colored souvenir. The most costly gift of its kind The Companion has ever offered;

And The Companion so weeks, a full year, to jan. 1, 1898, kind SPECIAL OFFERS.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 201 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass.

FOUR REMARKABLE BOOKS.

THE TRIUMPH OF DEATH. By GABRIELE D'ANNUNZIO. Translated by Arthur Hornblow, 12mo, cloth, gilt top. $1.50. This book is realistic. Some say that it is brutally But the realism is that of Flaubert and not that o ous method makes it clear and interesting to all readers, and Lieut. Dickman, who is assistant instructor in the art of war at the Fort Leavenworth Sc ool, has achieved a decided and realifying success in his aim of catching the unthor's spirit and style, so as to furnish a true in the equivalent.

We have also received:

"Fireside Stories—Old and New," collected by Henry T. Coates. (Henry T. Coates. & Co.)

"Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark" by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by Suggestions for Kindergarten Wark "by

TALES FROM A MOTHER-OF-PEARL CASKET. By ANATOLE FRANCE. Translated by Henri

Pene Du Bols. 16mo, cloth, gilt top, $1.25. "Analole France is a literary artist. His delicately suggestive sive is well reproduced in the translation of 'Tokes from a Mother-of-Pear' Casket. These sixteen stories are charming heat, precise, and tender, the surjects range from the folden Legend to the days of the Revolutionists. Nobody who has ever read 'The Crime of Sylvesire Bonnard, but will be delighted by the present volume."—Philadelphia Press.

ANDRIA.

A Novel. By PERCY WHITE, author of "Mr. "Corruption," etc. 12mo, Balley Martin," cloth, gilt top, $1.50. "Its plot is entertaining, and the best of it is that is creditably expressed."-, than y Times Union,

DAYBREAK.

Romance of an Old World. By JAMES COWAN. With illustrations by Walter C. Greenough. 12mo, cloth, gilt top. $1.50. "It is the most remarkable book which has appeared from this part of the country since Edward Bellamy a famous "Looking Hackward," and like that work it is a picture of a Utopia, but the perfected state of a Boston of the Year 2000, but that of an imagined Mars of the present day, an older and wastly more advanced world. "Springfield Republican."

GEORGE H. RICHMOND & CO., Publishers, 12 E. 15th Street, N. Y.

PALL MALL MAGAZINE. DECEMBER (XMAS) NUMBER.

NOW READY. Price 25 cents: 53 a ven

The CHRISTMAS NUMBER maintains the usual literary and pictorial sumptuousness which marks the PALL MALL MAGAZINE, and quite upholds its splendid reputation. The principal contributions are:

Silver "Nefs." (Per-onally revised by H. R. H. THE DUKE OF SAXE-COBURG-GOTHA.) Is an account descriptive of the famous quaint collection of silver ships of the 16th and 17th cen-turies, preserved at Chronice House, St. James's. The article has been written and lituarizated with the sanction and under the direction of His Royal Highness.

The Queen of Cities (in colors.)
Is the title of an article by FREDERICK WHYTE upon Constantinople, a city upon which all the world now gates with a described, and the more ments of the surging crowds thronging its basaars are porriayed by a series of brilliant lituariations fail of the color characterizing the Near East.

St. Lyes.

St. IVCS,

By ROBELT LOUIS STEVENSON, continues the second portion of the attring narmitive of the Adventures of a French Prisoner in Engand, and is marked with all the author's brillance of style and literary fush. Barely has a story been so exquisite y illustrated as "St. Ivee," in the pages of any magazine. Angels Unawares,

A story of creat pathos, by MARION ELLISTON, of a beralding angel's visit to earth on Christman Eve, and of its consequent blessings. Mathurin: a Sinner of Pontiac A tenching story of the Province of Quebec in the fast century, by oil field Paris Quebec in the Letters from Paris during the French Revolution, By the first DUCHESS OF SUTHERLAND, is an important contribution to the pages of European History. The letters are now for the first time published, and have been edited by LORD RON-ALD GOWER.

HERBERT S. STONE & CO. THE CHAP-BOOK, CHICAGO

BYCONE DAYS. By ALICE MORSE EARLS. Author of "Sabbath in Puritan New England,"

CURIOUS PUNISHMENTS OF

etc., with twelve quaint pictures and a cover designed by Frank Hazenplus. 12mo, $1.50, Mrs. Farie's position as an authority on colonial times is well known. This volume is popular in its subject and is dedicated, in the language of an old-time writer, "to all cur-ous and ingenous gentiemen and gentiewomen who can guin from acts of the past a delight in the present days of virtue, wisdom, and the humanities,"

CHAP-BOOK STORIES. Volume of Reprints from the Chap-Rook by OCTAVE THANET, GRACE ELLERY

CHANNING, MARIA LOUISE POOL, and others. 10mo, $1.25. The authors of this volume are all American. Be-sides the well known names, there are some which were seen in the C-ap Boos for the first time. The volume is bound in an entirely new and startling fashion.

THE LAND OF THE CASTANET. Spanish Sketches by

H. C. CHATFIELD-TAYLOR. Author of "Two Women and a Fool," with twenty-five full-page illustrations. 12mo,

A collection of rambling sketches of Spanish people and places, Mr. Chatfleid-Taylor has written frankly and enterialningly of the most striking features of "The Land of the Castanet." The vokume does not pretend to be exhibited; in no sense is it aguite note—it is intended rather for the person who does not expect to visit spain than for the traveller.

A CHILD OF THE JAGO. A Novel of the East End of London. By ARTHUR MORRISON.

Author of "Tales of Mean Streets." 12mo $1.60.

Mr. Morrison is recognized the world over as the most capable man at sum life stories. His "Tales of Mean Streets" was one of the b-streeted books of 1694-95, and the present volume has occupied his time ever since. It is of great force and continuous interest; a book that, once begun, must be finished, and one that will figure as a sensation for a long time to come. THE CARISSIMA,

A modern grotesque by LUCAS MALET. Author of "The Wages of Sin." 12mo. $1.50. THE FATAL GIFT OF BEAUTY,

By C. E. RAIMOND, Author of "George Mandeville's Husband." The New Moon." 10mo. $1.25. SECOND EDITION. IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY,

By MARIA LOUISE POOL, 16mo. $1.25. SECOND EDITION. WITHOUT SIN.

By MARTIN J. PRITCHARD. FIFTH THOUSAND. CHECKERS, A Hard-Luck Story, By HENRY M. BLOSSOM, Jr.

16 mo. $1.25.

If I had to ride from New York to Chicago on a slow train, I should like half a dozen books as gladsome as "Checkers," and I could laugh at the trip.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser. NINTH THOUSAND.

The Best Book of the Year. ARTIE. A Story of the Streets and Town, By GEORGE ADE.
With many pictures by J. T. McCutcheon.
10ino. $1.35.

To be had of all Booksellers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by the Publishers, HERBERT S. STONE & CO THE CHAP-BOOK, CHICAGO.

New York: INTERNATIONAL NEWS

EONTREAL: MONTHEAL ARWS CO.
TORONTO: TORONTO NEWS CO.
TORONTO: TORONTO NEWS CO.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS A. C. McClurg & Co.

ITALY IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

By ELIZABETH WORMELEY LATIMER. Illustrated. Svo, $2.50. trated. Svo. $2.50.

After a rapid glauce at the early history of Italy, the author points is oddly the leading events of the early part of this century, and enters more into details in dealing with subjects closely belon, ing to the present day.

The New York Independent says of Mrs. Latimer:
She possesses in an eminent degree the power of calling up the past and setting it side by side with the present.

frs. Latimer's 12th Century Histories aiready pub-lished are: Furope in Africa in the 19th Century St. 50 Ingland in the 19th Century St. 50 Russin and Turkey in the 19th Cen-jury in the 19th Century St. 50 France in the 19th Century St. 50 A SHORT HISTORY OF ITALY.

By ELIZABETH S. KIRKLAND, 12mo, 475 pages, $1.25. pages, $1.29.

"A well-considered, thoroughly digested and readably written history of Italy has long been a desired thing, and now it is a reality.

"Last week A. C. McCourg & Co. published Miss Kirkland's "A Short listory of Italy "The history of Italy is begun in 470 A. D., and is traced to the present year. Direct ness, completeness, and polished grace are the salient qualifications of this valuable book."—Morning Times, Washington, B. C.

Miss Kirkland's Histories already published are:

A Short History of France 91.25
A Short History of England 91.25
A Short History of English Literature $1.50 PIERRETTE.

By MARGUERITE BOUVET. Illustrated by Will Phillips Hooper. Small 4to, $1.25. The story has enough of romance to make it delightful to the little ones, although it has none of the impossibilities of the fairy sale; and mothers will be glad to put it into the hands of their children, because it is both sweet and wactesome.

Other works of Miss Bowel which have already become popular are:

Hweet William
A Child of Tuscany
Prince Tip Tup
My Lady for older readers)
Little Marjorie's Love Story AUDIENCES.

A Few Suggestions to Those Who Look and Listen. By Florence P. Holden. 12mo, Illustrated, 222 pages. $1.25. "It is not easy to conceive that any one can put aside.
'Audiencus' without having become more firmly and more clearly cognizant of the truths and beauties of architecture, sulpture, printing, nuise, drama and iterature.

* * The book should have for itself the largest possible of audiences."—Tones, Washington, D. C.

THE METHOD OF DARWIN. A Study in Scientific Method. By FRANK CRAMER. 12mo, 232 pages, $1.00.

Not to teach barwinism, but to commend to all thinkers Darwin's exact and logical method in the pursuit of knowledge, is the object of this excellent work.

The Hartford fust says: "The reader will see sansw the difficulties in the way of the scientific investigator, will understand why some most important facts have been undiscovered, and why false trails have seemed the right ones for years. The writer has given to his public a book for which they will be truly grateful." KARINE.

A Story of Swedish Love. Translated from the German of Wilhelm Jensen. (Tales from Foreign Lands.) 18mo, gilt tops, $1.00.

This latest addition to the "Tales from Foreign Lands" series in thrilling tale of the time of Gustave Vasa, who himself is the hero of the book, and mingles desightfully the sweet love story of Karine of Sweden with the warlike deeds of that swentful time.

"Memories," "Grazietta," "Marie," Madeleiter," "Marianella," "Coucin Philis," SCIENCE SKETCHES. By DAVID STARR JORDAN. New and Enlarged Edition. 12mo, 287 pages, $1.50.

"The book in its present form comprises nearly 300 pages of pleasantly written popular science in which the science has the advantage of being the real article written by one who a nowa."—N. Y. Atening Fost. THE LIFE OF ROGER SHERMAN. By LEWIS H. BOUTELL. Crown 8vo. $2.00. The valuable services that Sherman rendered are ample cause for national gratitude, and in return for them this timely publication will keep his memory green.

hold by booksellers generally, or will be sent, post paid, on receipt of price by the publishers. A. C. McCLURG & COMPANY, CHICAGO. New Bublientions.

THE CENTURY CO.'S NEW BOOKS.

A superbly illustrated book, containing twenty articles on the most famous modern French painters, Gérôme, Malsconier, Rousseau, Corot, Diaz, etc., written by their American puolis and admirers, including Kenyon Coz, Will H. Low, J. Carroll Beckwith, E. H. Blashfield, and others. Edited by Professor J. C. Van Dyke. Royal Svo, beautifully printed, 300 pages, $10.00.

AMERICAN HIGHWAYS.

By Professor N. S. Shaler, head of the Law-rence Scientific School of Harvard University. 12mo, 300 pages, illustrated with pictures and diagrams, $1.50. "By far the most important contribution yet made to the literature of good roads."—Dully Advertiser, Boston. CUOTATIONS FOR OCCASIONS.

A collection of 2,500 clever quotations for dinner menus, programs, etc., By Katharine B. Wood, of the editorial staff of The Century Dictionary. Rough paper, 12mo, $1.50. DAPHNE; OR, THE PIPES OF ARCADIA. A libretto of a comic opera, by Marguerite Merington, Illustrated by F. T. Richards, of "Life." 16mo, cloth, $1.25, "There is sparkle and galety in all of its lines."—San Francisco Argunaut.

New Novels and Stories. THE CAT AND THE CHERUS.

By Chester Balley Fernald, a new writer, whose unique contributions to THE CENTURY have attracted wide attention. It would be hard to find so much variety in any equally small collection of short stories by a single writer. Illustrated, 12mo, 300 pages, $1.25.

THE METROPOLITANS. A novel of New York society, by Jeants Drake. 12mo, 300 pages, $1.25. "A decidedly clever story; ... well proportioned and well written."—The Outlook.

THE WONDERFUL WHEEL. A romance of Louisiana, by Mary Tracy Earle, 12mo, 150 pages, $1.25. "Admirably told, with tenderness, humor, truth, and skill."—Christian Advocate, New York, GOLD. A Dutch-Indian novel, by Annie Linden. 12mo, 258 pages, $1.25. "The story is a strong one, and, in passages, intense and powerful." —Bulletin, Philadelphia.

STORIES OF A SANCTIFIED TOWN. By Lucy S. Furman. A dozen stories of a Kentucky community over which a wave of religious enthusiasm has swept. 12mo, 230 pages, $1.25.

By Ruth McEnery Stuart. A continuous thread of interest runs through these stories, chronicles of events in the life of a boy. 16me, $1.00.

BREAK O' DAY. By George Wharton Edwards, author of "Thumb-Nail Sketches," etc. Stories of the peculiar people of Long Codiac. Illustrated by the author. In leather, 163 pages, $1.00. "A sweet and dainty little volume." — The Observer, New York.

TRACINGS.

SONNY."

By E. Scott O'Connor; with introduction by Agues Repplier. 200 apothegms. In leather binding, $1.00. "The various sayings have a pungency that will serve to make them memorable."—Beacon, Boston.

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS. THE CENTURY BOOK OF FAMOUS AMERICANS.

By Elbridge S. Brooks. A companion volume to the popular "Century Book for Young Americans," by the same author. The story of a pigirmage of a party of young people to America's historic homes, and describing the early days of Washington, Lincoln, Grant, Jefferson, Webster, Clay, and other famous men. Square 8vo. 250 pages, 230 illustrations, $1.50.

THE PRIZE CUP.

By J. T. Trowbridge, author of "Cudjo's Cave," etc. Illustrated, 12mo, 234 pages, $1.50. "Plenty of action and a sound moral as well," American Church Sunday-school Magazine.

THE SWORDMAKER'S SON.

lly W. O. Stoddard. A dramatic story of boy life at the beginning of the Christian era. Illustrated, 300 pages, $1.50. "The 'Hen-Hur' of juvenile literature."—Providence News. SINDBAD, SMITH & CO.

By Albert Stearns. A new Arabian Nights story, by the author of "Chris and the Wonderful Lamp." Hustrated by Birch. 270 pages, $1.50.

BOUND VOLUMES OF ST. NICHOLAS. Beautifully illustrated volumes for the past year. Large 8vo. 1000 pages, 1000 pictures, RHYMES OF THE STATES lly Garrett Newkirk. Illustrated by Harry Fenn. 100 pages, cloth binding, $1.00. "The idea is most unjoue and may be described as history and geography made attractive for children."—Chicago Post.

THE SHADOW SHOW.

By Peter S. Newell, author of the Topsy Turvy books. One of Mr. Newell's most unique pro-ductions. Oblong, 90 pages, colored pictures, in boards, $1.00.

GOBOLINKS FOR YOUNG AND OLD: By Kuth McEnery Stuart and Albert Higelow Paine. A novelty consisting of grotesque pic-tures, reproductions of odd-shaped blots of ink, with nonsense verses. With the book are dijections for playing the new game of Gobo-links. $1.00.

PAPER DOLL POEMS.

By Pauline King. A nonsense book written by a big child for little ones, containing plo-tures in imitation of dolls and animals cut out of paper for the anusement of children, with verses. Oblong, in boards, 75 cents.

NEW EDITIONS. RANCH LIFE AND THE HUNTING TRAIL. By Theodore Koosevelt, illustrated by Frederic Remington. New edition in handsome binding troyal 8vo, with additional pictures.

$2.50. "Such vivid, picturesque, truthful work has a permanent value both as literature and as an accurate chronicle of a passing phase of our national life."—Brooklyn Eagle.

DADDY JAKE.

By "Uncle Remus." One of Joel Chandler Harrie's famous books, Illustrated by Kemble, Now issaed in new form, and made a compan-ion volume to Kipling's Jungle Books, 12mo, 200 pages, $1.25. "Ever fresh and always delightful."—Philadelphia Times. READY SATURDAY, NOV. 28TH.

WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

By I. Zangwill, author of "The Children of the Ghetto," etc. A collection of brilliant causeries on men, women, and books. Syo, $1.50. THE SHADOW CHRIST.

liy Gerald Stanley Lee. A study of Christ's forerunners in the Old Testament, intended as an introduction to the study of Christ Himself. 12mo, $1.25. For sale by all dealers, or sent, postpaid, by the publishers.

> THE CENTURY CO., Union Square, New York.

Mem Aublientions.

New Endlications.

& Brothers Harper

HAVE JUST PUBLISHED :

NAVAL ACTIONS OF THE WAR OF 1812.

By James Barnes. With 21 Full-page Illustrations by CARLTON T. CHAPMAN, printed in colors, and 12 Reproductions of Medals. Svo, Cloth, Ornamental, Deckel Edges and Gilt Top, $4 50.

In this book Mr. Barnes tells us of every important naval action in the War of 1812 between the United States and England, graphically describing the several engagements, briefly sketching the lives of the more important commanders, and paying a proper tribute to the sallors and marines, who were of that better class of stuff of which heroes are made. In fact, he gives us the names of nearly all of those who added lustre and glory to the service. Mr. Chapman's admirable illustrations supplement Mr. Barnes's pen-pictures in a way which is eminently satis-

THE MYSTERY OF SLEEP.

By John Bigelow. Post 8vo, Cloth, Deckel Edges and Gilt Top, $1 50. (In a box.)

Mr. Bigelow's main position is that sleep is not merely reparation of wasted energy, but has a deeper function in its divine intention—being, in fact, the period and agency through which divine life flows into the spirit, and without which man would be as the beast. The treatment of the theme is novel, and the volume should prove interesting to thoughtful readers.

AN ELEPHANT'S TRACK, AND OTHER

STORIES. By M. E. M. Davis. Illustrated. Post 8vo, Cloth, Ornamental, $1 25. Or the stories included in Mrs. Pavis's volume "A Snipe-Hunt," "Mr. Benjamin Franklin Gish's fiall," and "The Centre Figger" are remarkable for their abundant humor, while among those more delicate and subtle in character are "The Song of the Opal," "At La Glorieuse," and "The Soul of Rose Dédé," MARK TWAIN'S TOM SAWYER ABROAD, etc.

(New Edition) Tom Sawyer Abroad, Tom Sawyer, Detective, and Other Stories, etc., etc. Illustrated. Crown Svo. Cloth, Ornamental, $1 75.

Besides the stories mentioned in the title, this volume includes "The Stolen White Elephant," "Some Rambling Notes of an Idle Excursion," and other sto-

BY THE SAME AUTHOR:

New Editions from new Electrotype Plates. Uniform in size and style with 'Tom Sawyer Abroad," etc. Crown Svc. Cloth.

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. With Photogravure Portrait of the Author, and other Illustrations.

A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court. $1 75. The Prince and the Pauper. $1 75.

Life on the Mississippi, $1 75.

Cloth, $2 50.

HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, N. Y.

Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc. Crown 8vo.

Now's the time to subscribe.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE

FOR DECEMBER

READY TO-DAY.

BEGINNING OF A NEW VOLUME 170 PAGES-BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED

THE MARTIAN The Last Novel by George du Maurier. Part IIL

With illustrations by the Author.

Poultney Bigelow's second paper on WHITE MAN'S AFRICA has for its subject

PRESIDENT KRUGER

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES. By W. D. Howells. Personal Recollections of the Autocrat of the Breakfast Table.

HOW THE LAW COT INTO THE CHAPARRAL.

By FREDERIC REMINGTON. Showing the Texas Rangers as pioneers of civilization in the Southwest. With seven spirited pictures by the author.

A MIDDLE-ENGLISH NATIVITY.

By JOHN CORBIN. The miracle plays performed by strolling actors, in which the English drama had its beginning. Selected from plays with a Christmas theme. With four illustrations, by J. R. WEGUELIN.

SIX SHORT STORIES

OCTAVE THANET

HOWARD PYLE

RUTH MCENERY STUART HENRY GALLUP PAINE

GERTRUDE HALL ANNIE TRUMBULL SLOSSON

4.00 a Year 35 cents a Copy HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, N. Y.

For Other Advertisements Under This Heading See Eighth Page.